

ANDREW S. BOYCE DO

Specialties:

Orthopaedic Trauma & Fracture Care
Difficult Adult & Pediatric Fractures
Pelvic & Acetabular Fractures
Post-Traumatic Reconstruction Including
Non-unions & Osteomyelitis
Total Joint Replacement, Arthroscopy, Spine Surgery

Education:

Medical School:
MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine, 2001
Undergraduate:
Michigan State University, 1996

Training:

Fellowship:
Orthopaedic Indianapolis/Indiana University
Orthopaedics Traumatology, 2007
Residency:
Memorial Hospital, York, PA, 2006

Board Certification:

Board Certified

Memberships:

Orthopaedic Trauma Association
Michigan Orthopaedic Society
American Academy of Osteopathic Orthopaedic Surgeons
American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons,
Candidate Member

Family:

Dr. Boyce is married and has two children.

Outside Interests:

Golf, weight lifting, spending time with family

Great Lakes Orthopaedic Center